: A Grim Tragedy Well, I don't know if this is "scary" or "entertaining" but I think I can do it. Hopefully this is something interesting to chat about.

----- I heard a rumour recently that Luftrauman has started to buy up swords from the black market so they can resell them and make an accounting profit. As far as I know, I was the only one to catch on to this, so I went to a black market sword dealer with who is an old friend of mine. I don't know why I trust him, but he said that there is a guy who is basically Luftrauman's number one fence as of late. I have heard that there are some assets left from the black market that I can extort. Here, have you heard about Biafra doing this? I approached the older man that we were going to see. "What can I do for you?" the old man asked.

"Luftrauman bought some swords from the black market and I need to get something from them. I have the contacts to help me get some of this money from him, and I am thinking about retaining you to provide your services." The old man looked at me for a moment. I could see that he was thinking about my request. "It is true. However, the price you are asking for is very inflated. If I were to accept it, I would have to risk losing the contract I was working on with the Black Market. I can't afford to lose any business." He paused thoughtfully for a moment. Fadia is a young man from Naria village, a small village about 40 kilometers to the north west of Luxa, the ancient capital city of Naria. During the night, when most of the people in Naria slept, a large cloud appeared over the village. The cloud was so big that Fadia could see people and animals in the clouds, such as birds and monkeys. When morning came, the cloud had vanished. The village was shaken by an earthquake when the cloud appeared, but none of the houses were damaged. As a reward for his bravery, the people of Naria gave Fadia a sacred sword. Fadia carried the sword for three days and nights until he reached Luxa. As he entered Luxa, a great storm broke out in the sky. It was the most powerful storm that Fadia had seen in his life. Lightning and thunder roared in the sky and torrential rains were falling. Fadia ran to the center of Luxa, where the people of Luxa started to perform an ancient ceremony. After this ceremony, Fadia entered the great Temple of Naria and climbed the steps in the heart of the temple. From the top of the temple he could see the entire area of Naria. He then saw a cloud hovering in the sky over Naria and there was a massive amount of rays of light coming out of the cloud. Then, a flash of light went out in the middle of the storm. After a while, Fadia saw a great light in the sky. The light went out and the cloud above the village spread the rays of light into the entire village. The people of Naria saw a massive amount of light in the sky. Everyone was astonished. Everyone then witnessed an event that changed Naria forever. Over the next 12 hours, all the people of Naria ran into their houses, they were so scared. All the adults were inside the houses, locking the doors and windows. Only the children and the old people were outside, running through the streets of Naria. At first, the people were so happy and excited. But then the nature of children changed. The children were so sad and started to cry and scream, until the adults could not control them. Most of the children wanted to stay outside, but their elders would not let them. The parents would just watch the children cry, as they were coming down with a serious illness. As if their bodies had the knowledge that they were about to die they started to
